

With the threat of rain which did not materialize and a strong wind on the finishing straight made it a hard finish.

There were 11 starters but unfortunately the finish time keeper and recorder did not know of the 11th man starting and did not give him a finishing time.

Colin Miller had was unlucky in that he unshipped his chain but still returned a time of 2:11. The winner was Mark Farrar with 1:44, 2nd Phillip Felton 1:53 and 3rd David Parkes 2:06.

Fastest of the private rides Andrew Gibson 1:43.
