TIME TRIALLING NEWS

Tom Payne is fast becoming noticed as one of the rising stars of the club. He set the time for fastest junior at the Diana Cooke Memorial 10 mile Time trial.

Piotr Klin is setting himself up for another quick year after taking 2nd place in the Diana Cooke Memorial 10 mile Time Trial. This coming off the back of him being 2nd fastest in his age group at the BDCA A10/19 Time Trial ran by Stafford Road Club.

NEWS REPORTS

Breaking through the pain barrier!

COVENTRY ROAD CLUB'S RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN competed in an epic 12 hour time trial, 247.12 miles. Chamberlain set off at a quick pace, setting a personal best time for the first 100 miles in the Eastern Counties Cycling Association event at Cambridge (but he paid for it later on in the day, putting himself through what he described as 'a world of pain' in his attempt to beat the best British all rounder having competed at 50 mile 100 mile and the 12 hour standard. Hinkley based Mike Twelves (Team Inconnu) won his second road race in the space of five days when he outpaced riders some 30 years younger at the Maccy Park Circuit event.

Kate Bennett, also from Hinkley, won the final round of the Friday evening Summer mountain bike series at Rushmore, near Kettering, to take overall success in the series with maximum points.

Jewson team-mate and Coventry rider Peter Busby finished second in the race while Wolves' Benjamin's Tim Stone finished third overall.

Bennett was in action again on Sunday when he competed in the latest round of the British mountain bike series at Garsington.

Competing in the 50+ event, the 35-year-old dived himself and his bike down after an early crash and stumbled through the field to eventually finish in sixth place, while team-mate and rugby rider Phil Roach finished eighth and Coventry's

CYCING Andy Turner

Pete Busby 11th, Bennett has finished fifth overall in the national series. Hinkley CRC are on the cusp of the most important event on the club's calendar as they prepare to host the Men's National 10 Mile Time Trial Championship on Sunday, August 30.

A total of 150 entrants - the fastest riders in the country - will be taking part after meeting the qualifying time of 21 minutes or quicker for the event that takes place at club's own course at Clonsdale Bush, Wolvey, with the first rider off at 10am.

Guest presenter for the prizes will be former Rugby player Martin Johnson who is patron to the HOPE Against Cancer charity to which the club is intending to make a donation as a result of hosting this prestigious event. Anyone wanting to spectate on the day is advised to head to Wood Farm Brewery for ease of parking and facilities.

Attention racers, If you are doing amazing efforts racing lets shout about it. If you can send me your race reports and results. I will do everything I can to get you the praise and recognition you deserve.

It doesn't matter if you are 1st or 2nd claim or what type of racing it is TT/Road/Cross or Track you travel through a few pleasant villages on your circular route back to the hospice, ready to collect your medal & goodie bag and spend a few hours at the Zoës Place Summer Fayre!

They have kept the entry fee to a minimum so that you can raise money through sponsorship or donate on the day, 100% of money raised will go to Zoës Place Coventry.
